

Summer Camp for Special Needs Children

Offered by Focus on the Future Training Center in Plano

Focus on the Future Training Center is a Plano, Texas-based private school for children with autism and other developmental disorders. We strive to offer our students the very best in terms of academics, communications, social, and physical skills development. These concepts are designed to help them blossom and develop in our wholesome environment which is based on love, dignity, and respect. We arm our students with independence skills and facilitate their ability to adapt and generalize those skills for use in home and community environments with the longer term goal of our students achieving their fullest potential.

We offer a wonderful summer camp experience for our students that are fun, memorable, and effective in helping them maintain and develop critical skills during the summer months. Our six week summer camp begin on June 18th and ends on July 27th. And our summer operating hours are from 9:00am to 3:00pm, Monday through Friday. Our Summer School Curriculum offers:

- Maintenance of academic skills
- Community-Based Instruction
- Vocational Instruction
- Intensive Skills Training
- Speech Therapy
- Occupational Therapy
- Music Therapy Based on Speech Principles
- Art Therapy Based on Occupational Therapy Principles
- Independence Skills Training
- Behavior Management
- Structured Therapeutic Skills Development

Tuition for summer camp is $2,250.00 with the initial installment of $1,000 being due by no later than April 15th. Limited space is available.
